Description of Programs & Events:

Mt. Tom Bird Club for Families

A weekly Sunday morning program designed for beginning birders who want to learn how to use bird guides, bird lists, binoculars, and other birding resources.

Sunday Afternoon Family Program: 'Doin' the Beaver Walk'

Weekly Sunday program that explores the world of the web-footed, paddle tailed, Chisel toothed beavers living at Mt. Tom.

Senior Hike

A weekly Monday afternoon program for people age 55 and up. We take a leisurely paced walk on one of our easier trails.

Teatime at Tom

A weekly Monday afternoon program for people who prefer conversation to perambulation. We sit outside and talk about nature with free tea, lemonade, and cookies provided.

Trail Kids/ Jr. Rangers

a four-week program in August on Tuesday mornings for children ages 7-8. We learn about nature through exploration and crafts.

Explorers/ Jr. Rangers

a four week program in August on Tuesday afternoons for children ages 9-11. We learn about nature through exploration and crafts.

Naturalist's Choice

A Saturday program where the park interpreter will explore nature with visitors through various topics from rocks and wildflowers to the ecology of flowing waters and beyond.

Trail Hike

A weekly 2-3 hour program on Saturday afternoons for all ages. We travel on one of the many different trails each week.
